Hi Committee

Please see attached and below the response from Kim Martin, Sales Manager, Boss (Aust). Since speaking to Kim, I called Tim & Ambe Scott, Kandanga, friends of mine, who operate Boss Rural. Tim & Amber sell this product and provide refills for empty containers, so I do have to say that I have a little conflict of interest in this situation and of course a real sense of loyalty to the, however, since we live in a democracy, I realise, that these are my conflicts and not the committees', and not to be regarded in decision around PCN.

When I was introduced to Kim approx. 4 weeks ago, we talked about the possibility of her doing a presentation for PCN perhaps in January 2018.

Cheers
Wendy

Hi Wendy,
Attached is a brochure that describes what our company is about.
We are a local company that makes an Australian Certified Organic plant and soil product. We go to Garden Clubs, Community Clubs, etc to present a powerpoint presentation, to people who are interested in learning about soil health, and how to grow sustainably. I will bring our product to your meeting to show while I do our talk. Your attendees can purchase our product if they wish.
I look forward to arranging a date to be a part of an upcoming meeting or event.

Kind Regards

Kim Martin
